

I am firmly opposed to the harvesting of horseshoe crabs. These animals are important to the survival of so many others, not the least, Red Knots .

There is no case to be made to use these crabs as fishing bait when many other options are available without harm.

Please protect these animals that have survived centuries. Their numbers are seriously on the decline and they need to be protected.

Thank you

Judy stengel

23 2nd Ave, Branford, CT 06405